

Which best describes your home?

Conventional home

A free-standing home built to accommodate only one family and built on a permanent foundation. This does not include mobile or manufactured homes.

Townhome

A single-family home built on a permanent foundation and connected to other homes by one or more common walls. This includes homes such as row houses and duplexes.